The Lazy and Dishonest Woodcutter

A woodcutter threw his axe in the river. A forest fairy saw this and asked, "Are you okay? Your axe fell in the river."

"I was bored," the woodcutter answered, "So I threw my axe."

"Oh, I see. Do you want me to get it?"

"I guess," he replied, "but don't hurry. I'm too tired to cut another tree today."

The forest fairy went to the river and got a shiny golden axe. She showed it to the woodcutter and asked "Is this your golden axe?"

The woodcutter shouted, "Yes, that is my golden axe. I also dropped a diamond ring and a hundred gold coins in the river! Can you bring them to me, too?"

The forest fairy was very angry that the woodcutter told some big lies, so she threw him in the river.
